

Introduction to Communicable Disease
Surveillance and Investigation in North Carolina

Unit Instructions: 2.2 Selected Zoonotic Diseases

Activity 1: Before listening to this lecture, read:

- Tularemia on CDC.gov website, <http://www.cdc.gov/tularemia/>
- Q Fever on CDC.gov website, <http://www.cdc.gov/ncidod/dvrd/qfever/index.htm>
- Brucellosis on the CDC website, <http://www.cdc.gov/nczved/divisions/dfbmd/diseases/brucellosis/>

Activity 2: Listen to the DVD Lecture “Zoonotic Diseases”

Activity 3: After listening to this lecture, read:

- Investigation steps for tularemia, Q fever, and brucellosis in the N.C. Communicable Disease Manual
<http://epi.publichealth.nc.gov/cd/lhds/manuals/cd/toc.html>

Activity 4: After completing the above activities, go to SurveyMonkey and complete the quiz:

“Selected Zoonotic Diseases: Test Your Knowledge”
<http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/Spring2012Zoonotic>

If you have questions about this unit, please contact:

Dr. Carl Williams
Carl.Williams@dhhs.nc.gov or 919-733-0391

Thank you.